

Grand Canyon Tour

Sunday, December 29, 2024

Tour West America welcomes your team to the Valley of the Sun!

2024 marks the 24th year Tour West America serves the ground transportation needs of the Cactus Jam!

Sunday, December 29th is a day free of planned activities with the Jam. What a great day to travel beyond the court and see more of the Grand Canyon State! Sedona, Flagstaff, and the Grand Canyon are all within a day's drive of your hotel. So leave the Valley of the Sun for a day and TOUR ARIZONA.

Grand Canyon, Sedona & Oak Creek Canyon

Today includes the best of Arizona. Travel through Red Rock Country with a 1-hour stop in beautiful Sedona. Ahead are Oak Creek Canyon, Flagstaff, and the wonder of all wonders, Grand Canyon National Park.

Late afternoon depart for Flagstaff and an informal dinner stop. It may be warm and sunny in Tempe, but as we ascend to over 7000 feet the temperatures drop. It is not uncommon to find snow in the High Country at this time of year. Should you choose to walk along the Canyon Rim, wear appropriate clothing and shoes as the weather may be chilly. Motorcoach transportation and admission to the Grand Canyon is included. Departure from the hotel is 7am sharp with an approximate return time of 10pm.

Restaurants are available in Sedona and the Grand Canyon.

$90.00 per person for this driver-guided tour includes admission into the Park

Contact us by phone at 800-900-8687 and reference the Cactus Jam Tour or E-mail Steffi at steffi@tourwestamerica.com. A Tour West America representative will be available each day at the bus loading area of the hotel to accept your reservations. Visa and MasterCard are accepted. Private charter arrangements can be made as well. Should your interests lie elsewhere within Arizona, we can take you there.